

Dear Santa,

I know I can be difficult to choose gifts for. I am lucky to have many of the THINGS that I need. What I could really use is just a little private time to pamper myself. I would love to have a massage at Vive! where I can just get away for a little while and have one of their great therapists melt away the stress I have been feeling lately. If you are feeling especially generous, maybe I could get one of those nice warm neck wraps that I could use when I have a chance to cozy up at home.

Thanks Santa, you are the best.
